This Annual shareholder report contains important information about KEELEY Small Cap Dividend Value Fund - Class I (the "Fund") for the period of October 1, 2023 to September 30, 2024. How did the Fund perform?

Over the last year, the Fund outperformed its broad-based index, the Russell 2000 Index, despite the underperformance of value stocks. It also significantly outperformed its comparative benchmark, the Russell 2000 Value Index. Small cap dividend payers outperformed non dividend payers, but most of the Fund's relative performance came from strong stock selection. Our decisions about sector weights had minimal impact. The Fund's holdings performed especially well in the Industrials, Energy, and Consumer Staples sectors of the market, while the Materials, Technology, and Health Care positions lagged their sectors.

How has the Fund performed over the past 10 years?

The performance chart reflects a hypothetical $10,000 investment in the class of shares noted (assuming the maximum sales charge) compared to an appropriate broad-based securities market index and more narrowly based indexes that reflect the market sectors in which the Fund invests over a 10-year period. The chart uses total return NAV performance and assumes reinvestment of dividends and capital gains distribution. Fund expenses, including 12b-1 fees, management fees and other expenses were deducted.
